BROTHERS UNDER THE CHIN. ✓

Hal E. Roach. ✓

Two brothers (twins) are in a foundling home. Eachone bears a significant birth-mark -- a cross underthe chin. In time both areadopted and eventually reach man's estate though in entirely different walks of life. A strange coincidence brings them together aboard a ship where a mutiny occurs. The crew is about to be pushed over the rails, when the valiant efforts of one of the crew brings about a change in the tide of battle and the hero of the hour is one of the brothers. Recognition takes place, and they are again joined by mutual welfare for each other after years of separation.
